90. Repeal of Punjab Act, VIII of 1925.—The Sikh Gurdwaras Act, 1925 is hereby repealed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Sikh Gurdwaras, both historic and others, are situated and scattered in almost all States and parts of India and are held in great esteem and reverence by the entire Sikh Community. For lack of uniform legislation, they are managed and governed by different sets of rules and regulations mostly influenced by local customs and usages. There is no uniformity in the performance of Sikh rites and ceremonies in the Sikh Gurdwaras.

The Bill seeks to secure better administration of the Sikh Gurdwaras which may be duly notified by the Government by having more effective and efficient supervision and superintendence of the Board over the Committees of Management of Gurdwaras spread over various parts of India. The Bill also seeks to bring uniformity in the performance of all religious rites in all the Sikh Gurdwaras.

Hence this Bill.
